

Portfolio Managers – International Equity

Anne Budlong

Portfolio Manager/Analyst, Senior Vice President

Ms. Budlong is the portfolio manager/analyst for Oppenheimer Capital's International Equity strategy and back-up portfolio manager on the firm's Global Equity portfolio. Prior to joining the firm in 2006, Ms. Budlong was a portfolio manager at Credit Suisse Asset Management, where she managed international equity strategies for institutional, retail and wrap accounts. Prior to Credit Suisse, she served as a fund manager at Baring Asset Management, and as a vice president and research analyst at Clay Finlay. Ms. Budlong began her career with Oppenheimer & Co. as a financial analyst. She holds a Bachelors of Arts degree with honors from Williams College.

Miles Wixon, CFA

Co-Portfolio Manager/Analyst, Senior Vice President

Mr. Wixon is portfolio manager/analyst for Oppenheimer Capital's Global Equity strategy and a co-portfolio manager on the firm's International Equity portfolio. In his capacity as a research analyst, he specializes in Asian financials. Prior to joining the firm in 2006, Mr. Wixon was a senior portfolio manager and analyst at Rockefeller & Co., where he co-managed global, international and US equity strategies, and covered the global financial services sector. He previously covered the Japanese financial sector as a Tokyo-based analyst for Nikko Salomon Smith Barney. Mr. Wixon is fluent in Japanese and holds a Master of International Affairs degree from Columbia University and a BA with honors from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He is a CFA charterholder and a member of the CFA Institute.