

Portfolio Manager – Strategic Equity

Robert K. Urquhart

Portfolio Manager/Analyst, Managing Director

Mr. Urquhart is a senior portfolio manager/analyst for Oppenheimer Capital's Large Cap Growth and Strategic Equity strategies. He also manages three open-end mutual funds: one is managed in the large-cap growth style, while the other two are managed in the large-cap core style (one of which utilizes a covered call writing strategy). Prior to joining the firm in 1999, he was a portfolio manager at Pilgrim Baxter & Associates and a portfolio manager and managing director at PNC Equity Advisors. He worked for eight years at RCM Capital Management, where he was a partner, portfolio manager and senior equity analyst. Mr. Urquhart began his career as a sell-side analyst for Sanford C. Bernstein & Co. Inc. and subsequently worked as an equity analyst at J.P. Morgan Investments. Mr. Urquhart has an MBA from Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration and a BS from the University of Colorado.
